Travelling north on A12 (from Ipswich)

Exit A12 at the first Saxmundham turning follow the road down to the town centre. At the traffic lights where the B1119 crosses the High Street, turn left. Drive through Saxmundham High Street heading north towards Yoxford. Once you have left Saxmundham, you will see a turning on the right signposted towards Theberton – take this turning (the name of the road is Clay Hills)...

Travelling south on A12 (from Lowestoft)

Exit A12 at the turning for Kelsale. Do not turn into the village, but follow the road towards Saxmundham town centre. Take the turning on the left for Theberton (the name of the road is Clay Hills)...

...follow the Clay Hills road for approximately 1½ miles (the road goes over a railway bridge, followed by a long straight part of the road and then a sharp left bend, once past this sharp bend you will pass a red brick wall on your left hand side, (followed straightaway by a road on the left – don't take this).

The Farm is a short distance after this. Access to the farm is down a small track on the left.

You will see the Maple Farm Kelsale sign on the road.

Follow this track past our vegetable gardens and at the end is a barn on the right hand side (first set of doors).
